THE [Numb. 489.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, September 19, 1754.

LEGHORN, May 18.

THE Malecontents of Corſica have been in Motion theſe three Weeks, in order to execute their Deſigns. Eight Hundred of them, commanded by two of their Chiefs, advanced a Fortnight ago to Furiano, a Village three Miles from Baſtia, where they were ſoon after joined by two Corps, one of 300, and the other of 200 Men. Three other Detachments, making together 600 Men, marched towards the Towers of Stefana and Paludella, the Blockade of which they formed, under the Direction of Colonel Furiani: This Officer was ſome Time in the Service of the Court of Naples, but having been diſbanded after the laſt War, he, and ſeveral others, went over to Corſica, where the late Gaffario gave them Commiſſions. Moſt of thoſe Corps having joined, continued their March to the Hills in the Neighbourhood of Baſtia, and have formed their Camps in ſuch a Manner, that the City is almoſt entirely blocked up on the Land ſide. It is not known whether the Malecontents have any Cannon: Some former Advices aſſured that they were provided with Field Pieces; however, the Sequel of their Operations will ſhew whether they are really able to undertake the Siege of Baſtia, as they threaten to do. Though their March was in ſome Meaſure unforeſeen, by reaſon of the Celerity with which it was performed, the Marquis Grimaldi, Commiſſary of the Republic, has nevertheleſs taken proper Meaſures for a good Defence: His firſt Step was to forbid any Ship to ſtir out of the Port, except two Feluccas, which he ſent off ſucceſſively to Genoa, in order to demand a Reinforcement of Troops and Warlike Stores. In the mean Time he has diſtributed all his Garriſon in the Poſts that are moſt expoſed; he has not only armed all the Burghers, but alſo even made the Eccleſiaſtics take up Arms; he has obliged the Captains of ſeveral Ships in the Harbour to furniſh Part of their Crews for the Defence of the City; he has ſecur'd divers Perſons on Suſpicion of their being diſaffected to the Republic; and, in order to ſtrike Terror into all who may be inclined to favour the Malecontents, he has ſet up Gibbets in the principal Quarters of the Town, declaring that he will hang up every one that ſhall boggle at obeying his Orders.

Oneille, May 19. The Malecontents in the Iſland of Corſica, have lately received out of a foreign Ship, a conſiderable Quantity of all Sorts of Ammunition and Proviſion, together with ſome ſmall Pieces of Artillery.

Liſbon, May 10. The Rio de Janeiro Fleet is arrived, and the richeſt that has come from thence theſe ſeveral Years. The Britiſh Miniſter has ſent away by Expreſs the new Regulation which has been at length concluded, for preventing any future Difficulties in Commerce.

Madrid, May 21. The Day before Yeſterday, General Wall received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters, on being appointed Secretary of State, when he aſſured the Britiſh and Dutch Ambaſſadors, "That he looked upon a "Peace between Spain and their Nations, as the "greateſt Bleſſing that any of the three could wiſh "for; and that during the Courſe of his Miniſtry "he would do all that lay in his Power to ſtrengthen a good Underſtanding between them, ſo as "to render it indiſſoluble." We don't yet know who the King has in View to ſend Ambaſſador to England.

Marſeilles, May 23. The Maſter of a Veſſel arrived from Toulon aſſures us, that the Squadron under the Count de la Galiſſoniere, is actually ſailed to Algiers.

Vienna, June 1. This Day, about Four in the Afternoon, her Imperial Majeſty was happily delivered of an Archduke, and the young Prince and his Mother are both as well as can be wiſhed. The freſheſt Advices from Prague, reduce the Number of Houſes burat in that City to about 300. The Report of a Body of Troops to be ſent into Italy is revived, and it is ſaid will ſpeedily take place, and will conſiſt of 12,000 Men.

Paris, June 17. There is no expreſſing the univerſal Joy in this City, on the certain Advice that laſt Wedneſday, before his Majeſty ſet out a hunting, he publicly declared he had given Orders for recalling the Parliament. Nothing further of the Conditions betwixt the Clergy and Parliament is known, but that the King has recommended to the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, &c. to act with leſs Rigour both towards the ſubordinate Clergy, and their other Dioceſans, and that the Archbiſhop of Paris is to deliver up all the ſigned Blanks which he has in his Hands.

Paris, June 20. M. Davalaer is arrived here from England with the ultimate Propoſals of the Engliſh, who offer to cede to our Company ſome Territories in Aſia, provided that the French evacuate, in Favour of the Engliſh, all the King of Golconda yielded to them on the Coaſt of Coromandel in 1752.

The Maurepas, from Bengal, brings undoubted Confirmation of the Loſs of the Prince Indiaman, on board of which were the magnificent Preſents from his Majeſty and the Company to the King of Golconda.

Franckfort, June 12. The Scarcity of Corn is ſo great in the Circle of Franconia, particularly in the Biſhopricks of Wourtzbourg and Bamberg, that whole Families of Perſons in good Circumſtances have had no Bread to eat for eight Days. The Poor of this City continue to be ſupplied by the Magiſtrates out of the public Magazines.

Genoa, June 6. A Felucca from Corſica has brought the following Advices.

On the 10th ult. a Body of Rebels advanced to St. Pancras, which is only three Miles from Baſtia. Next Day we had Advice, that they had ſummoned the Captains Paſqualini, Mattie, and Patrimonio, to pay each, in the Space of three Days, the Sum of 3000 Livres, on Pain of ſuffering the moſt cruel Treatment. The 12th, We learnt, that the Town of St. Pelegrino was inveſted by the Rebels, and that they were preparing to draw a Line of Circumvallation round it. The Beſieged being in Want of Water, the Marquis Grimaldi ordered two large Veſſels carrying ſix Pounders, and four Sloops to ſail thither with a Detachment of Land Forces, under the Command of Capt. Golis. Theſe arriving next Morning at San Pelegrino, Capt. Golis put the Enemy to Flight, purſued them a great Way, ruin'd their Works, and victualled the Tower of San Pelegrino and that of Paludella.

On the 13th the Rebels, having received a Reinforcement of 300 Men brought to them by Matra and Santucci, marched from Monſerato and the Neighbouring Vallies, to fire on our exterior Line. At the ſame Time we had Advice that the Tower of Centurl and that of the City of Cape Corſe had been attacked for two Days. The Marquis de Grimaldi immediately gave Orders for erecting a Battery at La Croix: Which the Enemy perceiving, advanced, under Cover of the Trees, within Half a Gun Shot, but durſt not come any farther, becauſe the Commiſſary General had cauſed the Workmen to be ſupported by a Detachment of picked Men. The erecting of the Battery was carried on with ſo much Diligence, that in the Evening it was fit to receive the Cannon. The following Night the Enemy fired without Interruption on the Convent of the Capuchins. But Capt. Philip Spinola, who commanded on that Side, returned their Fire with ſo much Briſkneſs, that he obliged them to retire. The ſmall Squadron which the Commiſſary General ſent on the 12th to the Tower of San Pelegrino, returned the 15th, with Advice that the Rebels had abandoned Cape Corſe, and fled ſome towards the Sea, and others to Nebbio. This News being ſpread in the Camp at San Pancras, the Enemy's Troops which occupied it, fled likewiſe. We purſued them, and came up with ſome of their Detachments, which gave Occaſion to ſeveral Skirmiſhes in the Night; in one of which the Nephew of Col. Fabiani was ſlain. All the Territory belonging to Baſtia is at preſent cleared of the Enemy. The Zeal, Courage, and Activity of the Inhabitants, the Vigilance of the Marquis de Grimaldi in viſiting the Poſts, his Intrepidity in expoſing himſelf where there was the greateſt Danger, his Foreſight and prudent Meaſures, contributed to guard the Town againſt any Surprize, and to maintain Tranquility even when all were in Arms.

LONDON.

June 4. The Eaſt India Company have propoſed a ſuitable Gratification for Major Lawrence, in Conſideration of his gallant Actions againſt the French and Indians of their Party in the Eaſt Indies, for maintaining the Company's Settlements there.

This Morning a large Fleet of Ships from Norway arrived in the River.

We hear that a very extraordinary Piece of Ordnance, on Account of its Size, and in every other Reſpect, has been lately brought into one of the Store Houſes in the Tower, weighing near ten Tons, being above ten Feet long, and the Diameter of its Bore twenty Inches. It ſeems intended for throwing Stones.

June 6. Yeſterday Morning Capt. John Lancey was, purſuant to his Sentence, conveyed in a Cart from Newgate to Execution Dock, where he was executed; after which his Body was delivered to his Friends for Interment. He behaved with great Compoſure of Mind from the Jail to the Place of Execution. He read and prayed fervently; and the Populace as he paſſed, ſeemed to be greatly affected at his unhappy Fate.

On Saturday laſt the Corpſe of William Naiſh, Eſq; who was lately appointed his Majeſty's Agent and Conſul General at Madeira, and who died there the 8th of May laſt univerſally eſteemed and lamented, was landed from on board the Montague, Capt. Prince, and interred in the Burying Ground of St. George's Hanover Square.

June 10. It is paſt Doubt that the Corſicans are now ſupported by the very ſame Power that can blow hot and cold with one Breath.

The maintaining and ſupporting a Body of Troops on the Ohio, muſt be very expenſive and precarious to the French, as that River is at a great Diſtance from all their chief Settlements. If the Indians are properly managed, the French vigorouſly attacked, and our Limits aſcertained, by building proper Forts, there will be no Reaſon to deſpair of Succeſs.

The greateſt Man in the Kingdom, publicly declared, on Tueſday laſt, That, rather than loſe one Foot of Ground in America, he would oppoſe the Enemies of his Country, in that Part of the World, himſelf.

June 14. This Day Robert Hunter Morris, Eſq; accompanied by his Nephew, Capt. Morris, ſets out for Portſmouth, in order to embark for Pennſylvania, of which Province his Majeſty has lately appointed him Governor.

June 15. The Chevalier d'Abreu, charged with the Affairs of Spain, has preſented a Memorial to Sir Thomas Robinſon, whereby the Court of Madrid claims a little Spaniſh Ship which was taken ſome Years ago upon the Coaſt of New England, the Reſtitution whereof meets with great Difficulties.

June 18. Laſt Monday fe'nnight 160 Buſſes and 10 Tenders ſailed out of the Naes for the Herring Fiſhery.

Copy of a Letter from Paris, of the 7th of June.

"Our Hopes of ſeeing the Parliament Affairs adjuſted, had hitherto been but vague and uncertain; but now they appear better grounded, eſpecially from ſeveral Circumſtances, of the firſt Preſident's Journey to Verſailles, where he arrived on the Monday in Whitſun Week at 7 in the Evening. The gracious Reception he met with, was a Preſage of what he was to hear from his Majeſty, with whom he was

was in the Closet from Eight o'Clock till Nine. It was perceived at the Iſſue of his Audience, that his Looks ſpoke the higheſt Satisfaction, and he immediately ſaw himſelf ſurrounded by the moſt diſtinguiſhed Nobility, all full of an impatient Concern; however he went no farther than ſaluting them in a Manner which expreſſed his Senſe of their Concern, and without exchanging a ſingle Word with any, immediately got into his Poſt Chaiſe, on his Return to Soiſſons; before his Journey ſeveral Couriers paſſed between Verſailles and Soiſſons, of Gentlemen of the Great Chamber, who concluding from theſe frequent comings and goings, ſome Negociation to be on the Carpet, put the Queſtion to the firſt Preſident, who, without any Heſitation owned to them, that actually a new Negociation was began, and would very probably be brought to a happy Iſſue, but added, he had been enjoined to Secrecy; aſſuring them, however, that he would cloſe with no Meaſure that ſhould not be agreeable to the Court. Within theſe few Days Marſhal Noailles has, by the King's Order, paid a Viſit to the Archbiſhop of Paris, and it is alſo known to have chiefly turned on the Concurrence which his Majeſty deſires from the Clergy, in the Meaſures for facilitating their Accommodation."

They write from Canterbury, that a Farmer laſt Week, on removing a Hayrick into his Barn, near the Middle of it found a poor labouring Man, who, to his great ſurprize, ſaid that laſt July he fell aſleep whilſt the Hay was putting up, and being accidentally covered, had been cloſe confined in it ever ſince. The Farmer remembered the Man and knew him on firſt Sight, he being no otherwiſe altered than looking a little Pale in the Face. Multitudes of People daily reſort to ſee him, and large Contributions are made, as he has ſlept near ten Months, and lived without either Meat or Drink. [Reader, if you never before heard of A Canterbury Story, you may take it for granted, that This is one.

June 26. His Excellency Governor Morris, who lately ſet out for Portſmouth in Order to embark for his Government of Pennſylvania, will this Day go on board the Mermaid Man of War, Capt. Shirley, who is to land his Excellency at Philadelphia, and then proceed to his Station off New-England.

NEW-YORK.

September 2. On Friday laſt his Honour the Governor, in the Preſence of the Council, and Members of the Houſe of Repreſentatives of this Colony, was pleaſed to give his Aſſent to the following Bill, viz. An Act for paying Five Thouſand Pounds, for and towards aſſiſting the Colony of Virginia and Pennſylvania, to diſpoſſeſs the French and Indians, who have ſettled and erected Forts on his Majeſty's Lands, on the River Ohio, and Parts adjacent thereto.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Albany, to his Friend in New York, dated Auguſt 28, 1754, brought by an Expreſs, which arrived here laſt Saturday Night.

SIR,

Laſt Sunday Morning came down an Expreſs from the Carrying Place, with a Couſin of D. V. D. H. who lies there to trade. Some Indians who had been here, ſent by that young Man (I think) four Strings of Wampum, to give Notice that ſome Orandax Indians were gone to deſtroy Hoſack: Upon this Alarm, moſt, if not all the Inhabitants of Saratogue, Half Moon, Schaachkook, Tambenick, and Hoſack, left their Habitations; many of them came into Albany, others ſtaid above, about (a) Barent Bratt's, Van Der Heyden's, Van Arnem's, and that Neighbourhood, for two or three Days; ſome were gone back to their Habitations, others making ready to return. This Evening came here Peter Hogg, an Inhabitant at Hoſack, who went from hence this Morning; and as he was near home, met one of the Neighbours by the Way, who had eſcaped, and told him to return with all Speed; for Hoſack was all on Fire, and ſome People killed, and others taken Priſoners: I have not yet heard the Particulars, the Man at the Time of my Writing, being with the Commiſſioners.

After writing the above, I went to Lotteridge's, and was informed, that the Commiſſioners had taken Hogg's Affidavit, which I ſuppoſe will be ſent to the Governor. I am told, he ſwore, That the young Man who met him on the Road, told him, that he had ſeen the Army, and computed them to be near 300, or more, and many Frenchmen among them. I wiſh the Aſſembly might do ſomething towards fortifying our Frontiers: I reckon that To morrow every Soul to the Northward of the (b) Patroon's, will be in Town; if they think themſelves ſafe, which I much doubt of; for if ſuch a Number of Indians ſhould, in ſeveral Parties, fall on the Town in different Places, as we are all open, I think they could deſtroy us all.

The French Indians who came here more than two Weeks ago, to make Peace and open the Path, have always told the Commiſſioners, that there was no (c) Danger; that the Path was now open and clear, and this Peace was not made for a ſhort Time, or during their Lives; but for ever. As I heard an Expreſs was going to New York, I had juſt Time to write this. I am, &c.

(a) About 6 Miles from Albany.
(b) A Mile from Albany.
(c) As much Faith is to be put in the Promiſe of an Indian, as in that of a Frenchman. [It will be well if All [illegible] don't turn out at laſt All Lies.]

Since the above we hear, that the French Army are come down as far as Kinderhook (20 Miles below Albany) where they have taken a Priſoner. 'Tis ſaid another Expreſs is hourly expected with further Particulars.

WILLIAMSBURG, September 5.

This Day the General Aſſembly was prorogued, when his Honour the Governor was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

THE impending Danger from the violent Incurſions of the French, their Threats and Depredations, were the only Motives of calling you together at this Time. And the Lives, Liberties and Properties of your Conſtituents are in ſuch imminent Hazard, I did not in the leaſt doubt, but that you would, before this, have ſtrengthened my Hands with a proper Supply, to fruſtrate their malicious Intentions: And eſpecially, when I received from you, ſuch ſtrong and repeated Aſſurances, that you "Were determined on "your Parts to withſtand the impending Danger, "and to purſue every Meaſure in your Power, to "defeat theſe pernicious Deſigns of your Enemies." I thought I might reaſonably admit the pleaſing Hopes, that "You would effectually provide for "your Country's Preſervation, and convince the "World, that you had nothing more at Heart, "than a zealous Diſcharge of your Duty to the "beſt of Kings, and the ſincereſt Regard for your "Country's Welfare."

How great then, Gentlemen, muſt be my Surprize, and with what Amazement muſt that Country, and the World, ſee ſuch high Expectations caſt down ſo low! See you called upon in the Day of your Country's Diſtreſs; hear you declaring your Knowlege of her Danger, and profeſſing the moſt ardent Zeal for her Service; yet find theſe Declarations only an unavailing Flouriſh of Words; and that, inconſiſtent with them, and the Purpoſes of your Meeting, you withhold your Aid, and thereby leave the Enemy at full Liberty to perpetrate their deſtructive and unjuſt Deſigns.

The independent Companies, ordered by his Majeſty, cloathed and paid by him, and now employed in your immediate Defence; you abſolutely, by your Reſolve to me, deny Subſiſtence to: A Thing unprecedented in any of his Majeſty's Dominions, where they have been employed in their Defence, from Incurſions or threatned Invaſions.

I have my Maſter's Service, and the Safety and Honour of Virginia, ſo much, and ſo truly at Heart, that I cannot but be deeply affected at a Conduct ſo contrary to her Intereſt; and not altogether unconcerned for you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, that you ſhould appear in ſo bad a Light to his Majeſty, and give ſuch ill Impreſſions to the neighbouring Colonies.

However, as I find you are determined not to do, what your Duty to his Majeſty, and the preſent obvious Danger, indiſpenſably require; I think it proper, to avoid aggravating unneceſſary Expences, particularly inconvenient at this Time; and therefore, to put an End to your Continuance here, I do prorogue you to the Seventeenth Day of October next; and you are accordingly prorogued to that Time.

ANNAPOLIS.

Monday or Tueſday laſt ſailed from below Kent Point, the Ship Prince Edward, Capt. Blackburn, for London; with whom went Paſſengers, Madam Sarah Hollyday, and her Son James Hollyday, Eſq; of Queen Anne's County.

We hear from Dorcheſter County, that Mr. John Reed, who was wounded by his Negro Fellow with a Lathing Hammer, lately mentioned, died of his Wounds a few Days afterwards.

The Trial of old Mr. Cooper, for ſtabbing Hugh Meredith, whom he had employed as an Overſeer, did not come on at Dorcheſter County Aſſizes, for Want of a material Evidence; and we hear a Special Court is ordered in that County, for his Trial, to be ſoon held.

Two of the Negroes who were condemned at our County Aſſizes laſt Week, for breaking open a Meat-Houſe, having been recommended to his Excellency the Governor for Mercy, have received his Pardon; but the other one we hear is to be executed To morrow.

A RECRUITING SONG,

For the Maryland Independent Company.

(By an Officer of the COMPANY).

OVER the Hills with Heart we go,
To fight the proud inſulting Foe;
Our Country calls and we'll obey,
Over the Hills and far away.

CHORUS.

Over the Mountains dreary Waſte,
To meet the Enemy we haſte;
Our King Commands and we'll obey,
Over the Hills and far away.

Let ſneaking Cowards ſkulk at home,
While we in queſt of Glory roam;
And noble Conqueſt crowns the Day,
Over the Hills and far away.

Chor. Over the Mountains, &c.

No Popery nor Slavery,
No Arbitrary Pow'r for me;
But Royal GEORGE's righteous Cauſe,
The Proteſtant and Britiſh Laws.

Chor. Over the Mountains, &c.

Shall We to Britiſh Blood lay Claim,
And not ſupport the Britiſh Name?
Shall Marlb'rough's Battles be forgot,
And Slav'ry prove our willing Lot?

Chor. No! O'er the Mountains dreary Waſte,
To meet the Enemy we haſte;
Our King Commands and we'll obey,
Over the Hills and far away.

Whoe'er is bold, whoe'er is free
Will join and come along with me;
To drive the French without delay,
Over the Hills and far away.

Chor. Over the Rocks, and o'er the Steep,
Over the Waters wide and deep;
We'll drive the French without delay,
Over the Lakes and far away.

Let our dear Country reſt in Peace,
While We, deſpiſing ſlothful Eaſe;
In toilſome Hazards ſpend the Day,
And drive the Monſieurs far away.

Chor. Over the Rocks, and o'er, &c.

On fair OHIO's Banks we ſtand,
Muſket and Bayonet in Hand;
The French are beat they dare not ſtay,
But truſt to their Heels and run away,

Chor. Over the Rocks, and o'er, &c.

We'll do our Indian Allies Right,
And ſhew them Engliſhmen can Fight;
They'll ſee us win the well fought Day,
And Frenchmen flying faſt away,

Chor. Over the Rocks, and o'er, &c.

Ye FAIR! with ſoft approving Smiles,
Sweeten your Soldier's rugged Toils;
For you we Fight, for you we ſtray,
Beyond the Mountains far away.

Chor. While o'er the Rocks, and o'er the Steep,
Over the Waters wide and deep;
We drive the French without delay,
Over the Lakes and far away.

And when return'd from bloody Wars,
Adorn'd with honourable Scars;
Let Beauty be the Soldier's Prize,
Who dreads no Wound but from your Eyes.

Chor. Since o'er the Rocks, &c.

Then toſs about the flowing Bowl,
To each true hearted generous Soul;
That fears not Blood, or Limbs, the Day
We meet, to drive the French away.

Chor. For o'er the Rocks, and o'er the Steep,
Over the Waters wide and deep;
We'll drive the French without delay,
Over the Lakes and far away.
